

Sabella is a multidisciplinary artist working with abstraction through a mixture of analog photography, pattern design and printmaking. Capturing the relationship between the environment and the journey towards self-discovery is a principle theme of her work.

Education

-
- 2012 Lithography workshop, Printmakers Collaborative, Chicago, IL
 - 2011 Screenprint intensive, Lillstreet Art, Chicago, IL
 - 2009 BFA, Graphic Design, Drake University, Des Moines, IA
Concentration: Lithographic Printmaking
Minor: English Writing

Selected Exhibitions

-
- 2019 Group exhibition, "Make me a World", 21st Annual Iowa African American Festival, Des Moines, IA
 - 2018 Group exhibition, "Cabinet of Curiosities", Union Street Gallery, Chicago Heights, IL
Group exhibition, "Open Source", LACDA, Los Angeles, CA
Solo exhibition, Cafe Ladro, Seattle, Wa
Group exhibition, "Our Town: Reclaiming the Narrative", Anderson Gallery, Des Moines, IA
 - 2009 Group exhibition, "Hair Down to There", Koehline Art Museum, Chicago, IL
 - 2008 Group exhibition, "Light Up" Shijiazhuang, P. R. China

Collections

-
- Private collections, Chicago, IL
 - Private collections, Seattle, WA
 - Private collections, Des Moines, IA